

Sir,

I must ask you once again to send someone to deal with that insolent young priest of Nemesis, Enyo. He continues to plague my camp with his attempts to convert my soldiers away from worship of the warlord Ares and towards the temple of that oft-forgotten Nemesis. We have no need of Nemesis anymore, not on this field of glory, nor do I see what purpose it serves to deflect prayers from the glory of Olympus to the uncaring netherworld. This priest must be stopped before he

Sir,

I must ask you once again to send someone to deal with that insolent young priest of Nemesis, Enyo. He continues to plague my camp with his attempts to convert my soldiers away from worship of the warlord Ares and towards the temple of that oft-forgotten Nemesis. We have no need of Nemesis anymore, not on this field of glory, nor do I see what purpose it serves to deflect prayers from the glory of Olympus to the uncaring netherworld. This priest must be stopped before he

